

Diwali Celebrations

To enjoy the festivity, a plethora of activities were planned for the students as well as the staff members. The students enthusiastically participated in Poster making, Rangoli making, Best out of waste activity, Home Decor Item making and Class Decoration Competitions. Near about 80 students participated in the competitions. The senior dignitaries were mesmerized to see the impressive work done by the students. The winners were to be given the certificates. In the afternoon, a small gathering was organized for staff members of RJGP & NSIC in the central lawn of the college. Initially the Principal Sir and NSIC dignitaries lit up the Diyas with great honour and extended Diwali wishes to everyone. Afterwards, Principal Sir distributed sweets among the staff members as a token of celebration. Later on, one minute games were played by almost all the staff members with great zeal and they cherished every moment. Everyone thanked Principal Sir for the wishes and enjoyed the refreshment together.
